PARTICIPANTS WITH TWO ACCOUNTS. If you have two TSP accounts (civilian and uniformed services), you can use this form to change your name for both accounts only if you are no longer employed as a Federal civilian employee and you are retired or separated from the uniformed services. Personal information for TSP accounts that are associated with active employment can be changed only by an employee's agency or member's service. For example, if you have two TSP accounts, one as an active Federal civilian employee and another as a retired or separated member of the uniformed services, you can use this form to change the name on your uniformed services TSP account only. You must ask your employing agency to change your name on your civilian TSP account.

DOCUMENTATION REQUIREMENTS. In order to change your name in your TSP account record, you will need to submit one of the following types of documentation. (Note: Do not send original documents; they will not be returned to you.)

- If your name was changed through a court or other legal entity, submit a copy of the document showing both your new and former names.
- If your name changed as a result of marriage, submit a copy of your marriage certificate.

YOUR ADDRESS. The address we are collecting in Item 8 will only be used to notify you if we cannot locate your account based on the information you provide. It will not be used to update the address in your TSP account record. If you have a new address and you are separated, submit Form TSP-9, Change in Address for Separated Participant. If you are still actively employed, you must ask your agency or service to change your address on your TSP account.

MAILING INSTRUCTIONS. Make a copy of this completed form for your records.

PRIVACY ACT NOTICE. We are authorized to request the information you provide on this form under 5 U.S.C. chapter 84, Federal Employees' Retirement System. We will use this information to identify your TSP account and to process your request. In addition, this information may be shared with other Federal agencies for statistical, auditing, or archiving purposes. We may share the information with law enforcement agencies investigating a violation of civil or criminal law, or agencies implementing a statute, rule, or order. It may be shared with congressional offices, private sector audit firms, spouses, former spouses, and beneficiaries, and their attorneys. We may disclose relevant portions of the information to appropriate parties engaged in litigation and for other routine uses as specified in the Federal Register. You are not required by law to provide this information, but if you do not provide it, we will not be able to process your request.
