Information Relating to Deceased Participant

March 2015
III. INFORMATION ABOUT POTENTIAL BENEFICIARIES

If the participant was married at the time of death (i.e., you answered “Yes” to Item 19), proceed to Section IV; information about other potential beneficiaries is not required. Otherwise, answer all of the remaining questions in this section before proceeding to Section IV.

Beneficiaries will be determined using the following statutory order of precedence:

1. To your spouse;
2. If none, to your child or children equally, and to descendants of deceased children by representation;
3. If none, to your parents equally or to the surviving parent;
4. If none, to the appointed executor or administrator of your estate; or
5. If none, to your next of kin who would be entitled to your estate under the laws of the state in which you resided at the time of your death.

In this order of precedence, a child includes a natural child (even if the child was born out of wedlock) and a child adopted by the participant; it does not include a stepchild or a foster child who was not adopted.

Note: If your natural child was adopted by someone other than your spouse, that child is not entitled to a share of your TSP account under the statutory order of precedence. “By representation” means that if a child of yours dies before you do, that child’s share will be divided equally among his or her children. “Parent” does not include a stepparent unless the stepparent adopted you.

In Item 20, if you know that the participant had children but you are uncertain as to the number of children, please provide your best estimate of the number of children and check the adjoining box.

If you are applying on behalf of the participant’s estate, please provide the court papers appointing executor or administrator and a copy of the Estate EIN number on IRS letterhead.

      □ Yes  □ No  □ Don’t Know
      If “Yes,” how many? _______  □ Check here if the number of children you identified is an estimate.
   B. Were there any children of the participant who died before the participant died?
      □ Yes  □ No  □ Don’t Know
      If “Yes,” please complete the following:
      1. How many children died before the participant? _______  □ Check here if the number of children you identified is an estimate.
      2. Were there any descendants of those deceased children (i.e., the participant’s grandchildren) living at the time of the participant’s death?
         □ Yes  □ No  □ Don’t Know  If “Yes,” how many? _______  □ Check here if the number of children you identified is an estimate.

21. Participant’s Parents—Did the participant have at least one living parent at the time of death?

22. Executor or Administrator of Participant’s Estate—Is there an executor or administrator for the estate of the participant? If yes, please provide the court documentation appointing the executor or administrator and a copy of the Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN).
   □ Yes  □ No  □ Don’t Know

If you answered “Yes” or “Don’t Know” to any of the questions in 20–22, complete the rest of this form. If you answered “No” to every question in Section III, skip to Section VII; you may be contacted for additional information.
The information in this section will be used to locate potential beneficiaries. Be sure to fill in the deceased participant's name and Social Security number at the top of the page. If you need to list more than four persons, make as many photocopies of the page as you need. Check the box at the bottom of the page and indicate the number of additional pages attached.

If you cannot provide all of the requested information, provide as much information as you can. Write “Don’t Know” on any line for which you do not have information. If the information that you are able to provide is not enough to contact the potential beneficiary (that is, if you cannot provide a full address or telephone number) or if you only have information about some of the beneficiaries, complete Section V also.

When providing information about a potential beneficiary who was living at the time of the participant's death but who died after the participant, be sure to provide the date of death for that person.

If you are providing information about children of the participant, be sure to include natural children (including those who were born out of wedlock) and those who were adopted by the participant. Do not provide information for natural children who were adopted by someone other than the participant's spouse.

In the following (correctly filled-out) example, the participant was not married at the time of death, but the participant had two living children, a deceased child who had a son, and a surviving father. Because the participant was not married at the time of death, the applicant provided information about the participant's living children and the grandchild (from the participant's deceased child) identified in Item 20. There was no need to provide information about the deceased child identified in Item 20B because that child predeceased the participant. There was also no need to provide information about the surviving parent, because the living children and the grandchild will be the beneficiaries according to the statutory order of precedence.
